United States Bankruptcy Court, C.D. California. November 14, 1991. *379 Victor M. Earley, Thomas H. Battersby, Doyle, Meyerson & Pinzini, Newport Beach, Cal., for debtor. Stephen S. Myers, Irell & Manella, Los Angeles, Cal., for Manufacturers Hanover Sav. Trust Co. MEMORANDUM DECISION ON CHAPTER 11 PLAN JOHN E. RYAN, Bankruptcy Judge. I. INTRODUCTION This case came before the court on the confirmation of debtor's plan. The court considered evidence and argument of counsel. The court, having considered same and for the reasons set forth below, makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law. II. FACTS Debtor is a real estate investment company which filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 11 on March 20, 1989. Debtor is the holder of various parcels of real property. Debtor purchased the property in 1985. In 1988, the land was purchased by debtor from the 1216 Corporation (1216). 1216 was a California partnership with two other partners. 1216 had previously purchased the property from the trust in question, Manufacturers Hanover Trust Company (MHT). MHT holds a deed of trust encumbering the property. It owns the mortgages on the property. The value of the property is approximately $3,700,000.00. MHT's claim is approximately $3,750,000.00. MHT has received payments from debtor totaling $4,500,000.00. The plan provides for a 5% distribution on MHT's claim. The MHT claim will be paid when each parcel of real property is sold. The plan provides for an immediate liquidation of all properties which will distribute the proceeds to unsecured creditors. III. DISCUSSION The first issue raised by the debtor is whether MHT has violated 11 U.S.C. § 362(b)(3). The debtor claims that MHT violated § 362(b)
