AutoCAD Crack+ With License Key 2022

In addition to the main user interface, AutoCAD offers a variety of ways to configure the drawing or view in the application. This article covers the basics of AutoCAD's drawing interface. You will also learn how to draw and modify basic geometric and nongeometric shapes. You will learn how to apply annotations such as layers and dimensions to drawings, how to include additional drawing views to the drawing page, and how to control and manage the drawing. This article does not cover the many other topics that can be included in drawings. For more information, refer to Autodesk's web site at www.autodesk.com. Drawing Basic Shapes To create a new drawing or to open a drawing that you created in another application, you must start AutoCAD. For instructions on starting AutoCAD, see Get Started with AutoCAD. Before you start a new drawing or open an existing drawing, you need to set the drawing's display settings. To change the display settings, click Edit > Preferences > Display. For more information, see AutoCAD on the Web. 1. Choose Tools > Options. The Options dialog box opens. 2. In the left pane, select Drawing Display Options. 3. To the right of the button, select Drawing Settings, as shown in Figure 1.1. Figure 1.1 Select Drawing Display Options to open the Display Settings dialog box. 4. In the Drawing Settings dialog box, select a setting for Draw and Edit Window, as shown in Figure 1.2. Figure 1.2 Select the setting for the drawing's drawing and editing window in the Display Settings dialog box. 5. To preview the changes you are making, click OK. To create new drawings, choose File > New. This opens the New Drawing dialog box. The New Drawing dialog box is divided into the following sections: • Name • File Type • Options The following sections of the New Drawing dialog box are covered in the following sections. Name Select a name for your new drawing. Figure 1.3. Select a name for your drawing from the list. File Type Select a drawing type. You can use this selection to specify the type of drawings that you create. Figure 1.4. Select a file type. Click the button next to the
