Belarusian State Committee on Archives The Belarusian State Committee on Archives is the main archive in Belarus. Its head office is in Minsk. History Belarusian State Committee on Archives (UBA) was established on September 26, 1991 on the basis of a decree of the Council of Ministers, No.152/5 from February 26, 1990. Belarusian State Committee on Archives has a staff of 380 people. In addition to archive work, the UBA develops methods of preservation and restoration of cultural heritage objects. The head of the UBA is appointed by the President of Belarus. The head of the UBA is: Deputy Head of the State Committee on Archives: Vladimir Dzmitryevich Drozdov. Main task The main task of the State Committee on Archives is to maintain and research the collections of the country's archives, which include archival institutions and collections. The UBA has an international reputation, and its main collections are archived at the Archive of the International Committee of the Red Cross in Geneva. Sectoral committees The UBA has 4 sectors (Departments): Provision of archival documents, Translations, Audiovisual Sector (with specialized departments) Scientific-research Sector Collective Rights The UBA has a system of collective rights (investigation of authors of documents) in the national territory. Every citizen has the right to demand investigation of a document. International operations The archive has a number of international partnerships: The National Archives of the Netherlands, Nara Archives of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina (Bosnia and Herzegovina State Committee on Archives) Royal Archives of Saudi Arabia Archives of the Archdiocese of Boston Archives of the Archdiocese of Hamburg archives of the Archdiocese of Cologne Archives
