Windies' bowling attacks battling for line-up 2 years ago Share Post Karachi: The West Indies would be looking to bounce back from two consecutive defeats in Test cricket against the reigning champions India when the two teams lock horns for the first Test of the two-match series here tomorrow. West Indies were heavily beaten by India in the first Test at Nagpur but bounced back spectacularly in the second Test at Guyana with a comprehensive eight wicket victory. The West Indies have a good bowling attack which includes medium-pacers Chris Gayle, Ramnaresh Sarwan and the emergence of Andre Russell. Their batsmen all score well against India. West Indies batsman Brian Lara, who is fifth on the all-time Test scoring list, still had high hopes that his side would meet India in the final Test and "hopefully we can give them a good go" in the Abu Dhabi Test. "The last time we were beaten by India in the final Test of a series was in 1989-90. Unfortunately for us we didn't play in the series in 1990-91 but we played in 1991-92 and the series was drawn," Lara said. "So I would like to say that hopefully we can give them a good go in the final Test and hopefully we can give them a good go with Chris Gayle and Andre Russell," Lara added. West Indies batting mainstay and captain Darren Sammy was also full of praise for the side. "We have a great challenge ahead of us. We are going to have to be really focused for this Test match, the target will be a very challenging one," Sammy said. "We have a very good Test side that will give the Indian bowlers a good fight. India have been a very tough opponent over the last four or five years. The pitch will be good for batting," Sammy added. West Indies have a lot of respect for India's bowling attack with their current captain, MS Dhoni, being one of the world's premier bowlers. "India has been one of the top five teams and it's good the teams are so close, it will be interesting to see who goes on and who wins the Test series and how it pans out in the next couple of months," Dhoni said. "I know they have good players in the Test side and it will be a good battle as everyone is trying to win the series,"
